Published, weekly, by PHILO WHITE,]

and m of sale.

sale.

for all in and san exinto sell;

the the nd is inute hase, osing Salisıt.

for the

wel.

niu

8.

sep-or so

ad.

bie.

SALISBURY, N. C....TUESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1826.

[VOL. VII.....NO. 325.

The terms of the Western Carolinian are, $3 per annum—or $2 50, if paid in advance.

No paper discontinued, (except at the option of the Editor) until all arrearages are paid.

Advertisements will be inserted at firty cents per square for the first insertion, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent one.

All letters addressed to the Editor, must be post-paid, or they will not be attended to.

MR. RANDOLPH.

Panama question, delivered in the senate, March 30, 1826.

North Carolina, towards whom I feel no unfriendly sentiment or wish; it is this:

is this: the unreasonableness of the gen-tleman from North Carolina, in attempting, at this time of day, to alter the form of our Government, " as established by the practice under the Constitution." Now, sir, the practice under the Constitution was settled, in the two first instances, in this way: That the Vice President succeed the President. At that time, the President opened Parliament (or Congress) by a speech from the throne; but. since that time, the practice has been settled another way. Since the revolution of 1801, the practice has been settled, that the Secretary of State shall succeed the President; hence it is that the Secretaryship of State has been the apple of discord under all administrations succeeding that of Mr. Jefferson. It was the bone of contention between Mr. Galmore here besides myself [looking at Mr. Macon] that know it. It has been the apple of discord, aye, and of concord too, sir, since—it has been the favorite post whether spostate federalist or spostate republican, who wishes to get into the Presidency, her fas aut her nefas-rem quocunquo modo, rem-recte si hossi"honestly if they may; corruptly if they must." It has been that which Archimedes wanted to move the world : (fou eto) "a place to stand upon;" aye, and to live upon too, sir; and with the lever of patronage to move our little world. Now, sir, the gentleman from North cession of our monarchs, and to reduce us to something like the barbarism of Russia, where they haven't yet perfected themselves in the A B C of legitimacy: a regular indefeasible succession of tyrants although they claim the head of the table hardly one instance of the lineal heir then his Chamberlain's; then an Emnobody knows who-who went before Paul, not by the same instrument; no sir. In the case of Peter, the red-hot pokerthe new Pahlen-tie of the twisted cravata la Pichegru-and it was only the day after the news arrived of the deliverance of the world from the autocracy of Alexander the Deliverer-as well as I remember the date-I know that it was on the 9th of February-three days before the unavoidable departure of my colleague, that I endeavored, and, as I then thought. not without some show of success, to impress the Senate with the important bearing of the recept even at Taganrock (recent as to us) upon the new, wild, danger ous, and, as I fear, fatal policy, now, for Burleigh were cautious and powerful. The Stuarts and the Buckinghams, profii gate, feeble, and rash. It was then that I eccassionally—a la Cossaque.) It was on that day that I suggested to the Senate that the poker or the bowstring of a would not "d—n even their souls," if I shall show on a future occasion. Low Zuboff, or the something else of some they had them. I should surely be put not show it now-it would be unreasona- Allen.

in off-the instrument and the mute ence and the cause of humanity. nearest at hand in the Caprana styes of tyranny and lust—was ready to despatch this new successor of the Tsars—of the Constantines—of the Byzantine Casars.

But, sir, I, the common libeller of great and good men, did injustice to both these legitimates; to St. Nicholas one of them, and too well of the other. I thought that Commodus would "show But, sir, let us not despair of the fight." Russian. In spite of Montesquieu's sneer, he " can feel" for a brother, at least, I have another objection to make to the position advanced by the gentleman from even although he be not flayed alive; except now and then, under the autocracy Inhriendly sentiment of wish; it is this: of the knowt. He has not, indeed, yet I hope that he will pardon me, and I hope for the pardon of the Senate;—at least, I water"—that is, the political philosopher's feel that you, sir, ought to pardon me—it stone, which is yet in the womb of time, to be brought forth by some modern Accoucheur-reformer. But he shows signs of capability that are quite encouraging. He cannot, indeed, redeem his paper, neither can the bank of Kentucky redeem its paper; but the red-hot poker is replaced by a box of sweet-meats-the bow-string by a medal hung round the neck-the badge, not of death, but of ideocy and cowardice. Commodus is brave no where but in the arena, with kittens, and puppy dogs, and women for his antagonists; a veritable master Thomas Nero-see Hogarth's progress of cruelty. An Ukase, backed by a hobby horse, or a medal, and a box of sweet-meats; goody goodies as the overgrown children say, is the full consideration paid, had, and received, for the surrender of the sutocratical crown, of the largest empire in the latin and Mr. Robert Smith. There are world, and some say the most powerfulof the proud eminence of the Empire of Europe. How vastly amiable and senti-mental! A Ukase now does what was formerly done with a red-hot poker, or a and position of every bad, ambitious man, bow-string; a Ukase, with a most affectionate fraternal letter, a box of sweetmeats, a hobby-horse, or a medal—as we, in our barbarous slave-holding country do, sometimes, hang a quarter of a dollar round a child's neck to keep it in good humor—all cooled, however, with the blood of a few real adherents to legitimacy-in the persons of the guards of the empire, faithful among the faithlessmake the charm firm and good. Would the gentleman from North Carolina re-Carolina is so extremely unreasonable as duce us to worse than this Russian barto wish—he will bear with my reproof, I barism? Will be contend that even Judas hope—as to wish to break the lineal sucwas not entitled to the thirty pieces of openly run the principle of patronage against that of patriotism—that has un-blushingly avowed, aye, and executed its tions, which have been laid before us, of the Holy Alliance-where there is purpose of buying us up with our own hardly one instance of the lineal heir money. Sir, there is honor among succeeding to the throne without regicide thieves—shall it be wanting then among and parricide, (which the case implies,) the chief captains of our administration? from the time when Muscovy first be- I hope not, sir. Let Judas have his thircame an European power-from the time ty pieces of silver, whatever disposition of Peter Alexivitch, (or Alexiowitz, as I be may choose to make of them hereaf-was taught in my youth to call him,) who ter—whether they shall go to buy a pot-was the slayer of his son, and who trans-ter's field, in which to inter this miseramitted his power to Catharine, the ble Constitution of ours, crucified between Livonian peasant girl, first his strumpet; two gentlemen, suffering for "conscience sake," under the burthen of the two first worthy of his hire, entitled to all that they who employed him to do the work could give as wages; he was, at least, the actual cauterie-supplied the place of entitled to what they had stipulated to give, even at the eleventh hour; and, whatever promise may have been made to him, it is the bounden duty of the promiser to see that they are made good o the promise. The gentleman from North Carolina must not complain that they are working in their vocation-" "Tis my vocation, Hal! 'tis your vocation.' Be it our vocation, sir, to call them to a more suitable vocation. I, sir, have no personal resentments against these unhappy people; these unfortunate gentlemen, as they say of every man who is unmasked—I disclaim all personal feethe first time, if not announced, attempted lings. My resentments are entirely poto be practised upon by this rash and litical—they are for my country's ene-fecble administration. Elizabeth and mies, not mine. Sir, let these unhappy persons retire to the obscurity that be comes their imbecility, and befits their shame, and they shall never hear from forewarned the Senate that the red-hot me the language of sarcasm or reproach. poker of some Orloff the Balafre, or Orloff, the other Favorite—(it was a regular household appointment of Catharine la Grande——somewhat irregularly filled des catched, cracked, or boiled, in recessionally—a la Cossaque.) It was on venge, or, in experiment, to ascertain body else-some other Russian or Ruffian | into the institute, for my devotion to sci- | ble-but show it I will, and in a manner

say I will prove, if the Senate will have the patience to listen to me—I will prove to their satisfaction, that the President has Jonathan-Russelled himself. I have and to Casarovitch. I thought too ill of as good a right to coin compound verbs as other people. I say the President of the United States has Jonathan-Russelled himself-has shown that, in the execution of a great public trust, he had done that which has damned Jonathan Russell to everlasting infamy, and enabled him to put his foot on Russell—to clap in extinguisher on him. If I don't proje itit is a pledge that shall be redeemed—not like the pledge about the navigation of Mississippi—not like the pledge about these Spanish American resolutions—it shall be redeemed, or I will sit down infamous and contented for the rest of my life. And how, sir, has he Jonatha Russelled himself? He has done itby the aid and instrumentality of this very new ally. I shall not say which is Bifil and which is Black George. I do not draw my pictures in such a way as to render it necessary to write under them, "this is a man, this is a horse." I say this new ally has been the means of Jonathan-Russelling him ! and for what ? Sir, we hear a great deal about the infirmity of certain constitutions-not paper constitutionswe hear a great deal of conditutional infirmity-seven years is to long for some of us to wait; and if the President can be disposed of a the end of three years, then, being Jonathan Russelled, may they not, by some new turning up of trumps, expect to succeed him? I shall suggest to my good friend from Missouri, whether there is not in fact a Trojan horse within the walls of the Capitol-no, not of the Capitol, but of the executive Palace. I would suggest to him whether there is not an enemy in the camp, who, if I should fall in blowing any body sky high, will put them—below not only the sky, but the ground-bury them. But, whatever the motive may have been, the fact is as I have stated it that there is a discrepency in the communications of the Executive to Congress; and I will state another thing, when I come to it. It is, that I do believe-though I do not pledge myself to provebut I will pledge myself to make out a very strong case, such as would satisfy a jury in the county of Charlotte—and I would put myself on that jury, and be This is the first administration that has tried by God and my country -- I then say, sir, that there is strong reason to believe were manufactured here at Washington, if not by the pens, under the eye of our own ministers, to subscree their purposes. Though in one respect I am like the great Earl of Warwick, the king maker, and a little unlike him in unmaking one king-though between two hawks, I can tell which flies the highest pitch-between two dogs, which has the deeper mouth- between two horses, which bears him best-between two blades, then his Chamberlain's; then an Empress; whom I have heard more than once confounded with her namesake, Catharine, Princess of Anhalt, the second of them by the forms of the Constinution, against its spirit and his own, of that name who, by the murder of her which is grieved that the question cannot be submitted to the people—or, whether of the measure; it is the case in this our day of Constantine Czsarovitch—which means, I believe, Fitz Czsar—as it was rial. Judas, having done the work, ("it father, Peter, the son of somebody—was, on the principle that the laborer is father, Peter, the son of somebody—who went before Park the respectively. The principle that the laborer is nobody knows who—who went before Park the respectively. The principle that the laborer is nobody knows who—who went before Park the respectively. The principle that the laborer is nobody knows who—who went before Park the respectively. The principle that the laborer is the work of this pack that the business is interest of the Sake," under the business; which hat the better temper—between once of the work in that Colonel Benton will not be re-cleated. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary, and speak it with certainty; for netered. We can assure them of the contrary and speak it w which hath the better temper-between shuffling of this pack that the business is done. They who can shuffle the whole pack are often quite ignorant of any foreign language, even of their own ; and, in their attempts to write and talk finely, they only betray their poverty, like the fine ladies in the Vicar of Wakefield, by their outrageous attempts to be very genteel. The first thing that struck me in these documents was how wonderfully ty, whence issues all the opposition which these Spaniards must have improved in has spread into a few others, only two English, in their short residence in the oppositionists (Lucas and Post) could be United States. It reminded me of a remark in one of Scott's novels, is the part ted. None of them stand any chance to about old Elspeth of the Craigburnfoot: be elected, unless in the way of being Aye," says old Edie, "she's a well educate woman; and an' she win to her English, as I have heard her do at an orra arrayed in the legislature against Col. B., time, she may come to fickle us'." and know that not one can be given against have got to their English, and we are all fickled. But I shall ple's will, and upon the principle that they

English letters were translations from the Spanish, made in the office of the Secretary of State. I hope not -- I should be that shall satisfy any honest jury on the south side of the Ohio, and on the south side of Mason and Dickson's line-any honest jury-and I will bring the presumption so strong, that he must possess more than Christian charity, (which covereth all things,) who will deny that there exists strong presumptive evidence—and, sir, against the honor of a man, as against the honor of a lady, strong pre sumptive evidence is a fatal thing—it is always fatal when that presumptive evidence cannot be cleared up and done away. Do you read the letters of these South American missionaries over again, and compare them with the tone of the messages and letters which we have re--put them in columns one against Drawing to commence in Hillsborough, on the 2d mer, and mark the similitude. My the other, and mark the similitude. My suspicious temper may have carried me too far-if it has, I beg pardon-but I will show enough-not a handkerchief?-not to justify the jealousy of Othello-yet I believe that the jealousy might have been pardoned to the noble Moor, certainly by me, had he not been a black man; but the idea to me is so revolting of that connexion, that I never can read that play with any sort of pleasure—see it acted I never could.

The following very interesting anecdote given by Mr. Sergeant, in his Eulogy, upon Messrs. Adams and Jefferson, recently delivered in Philadelphia, is ta-ken from the Democratic Press.

" Mr. John Adams took his scat in Congress the 5th of September, 1774, the day the Old Congress first met. In June 1775, after blood had been shed, that war was certain, and that the enlightened and patriotic were preparing the public mind for revolution and independence---it became necessary to appoint a Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United Colonies, Gen. Ward, of Massachusetts, the colony which Mr. Eighth day, the person thought of for that important nation. [Gen. Ward commanded the army at Cambridge, from the time of the battle of Lexington, till the arrival of Gen. Washington, in 1775.] The 15th of June 1775, a memorable day in the history of the country, Mr. John Adams Seventeenth day, rose in his place, and with much judgment and knowledge of public feeling, nominated George Washington of Virginia, " to command all the continental forces raised for the defence of American Liberty." So entirely unexpected was this proposition, that Mr. Washington was at the time it was made in his seat in Congress. With the modesty which characterizes and appertains to greatness, he was so overcome as to retire immediately from the body. "Congress then proceeded to the choice of a General, by ballot, and George Washington, Esq. was unanimously elected."

FROM THE MISSOURI ENQUIRER.

Our next Senator .- Public attention abroad seems to be much directed to the next election of Senator from Missouri, and some Editors have ventured an opinion that Colonel Benton will not be re-eldiscovered, and the re-election of Col. B. and execution awarded accordingly. has been made the test of elections to the legislature. The result is, that out of near thirty counties, there are not above three or four in which candidates could be got to declare against him, and in not one of these could even a full ticket of oppositionists be made up. In this county, whence issues all the opposition which has spread into a few others, only two oppositionists (Lucas and Post) could be appear at our next court of pleas and quarter Sessions, July term, 1826. George Ury vr. Asa Thompson: Original attachment, levied on Tan Yard, &c. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant in this case is not an inhabitant of this state: Ordered, therefore, that publication be made six weeks in the Western Carolinian, notifying said defendant that unless oppositionists (Lucas and Post) could be legislature. The result is, that out of oppositionists be made up. In this coungot, although five members are to be elecsmuggled in upon a general ticket. We venture to affirm that ten votes cannot be be told-because I have kept this thing are incompetent to choose for themselves; locked up here, to bring it out here in a principle which converts the servant of this Senate-I shall be told that these the People into their master.

Robert Allen, long a Representative in Congress from the Carthage District, in sorry to see any such tokens of affinity, Tennessee, has given notice that he

NOTICE.

Department of State,
July 15, 1826.

To obviate the risk and delay incident to the return of the Bank Notes from this Department, not receivable at the Treasury of the United States, in payment for Patent Rights, all persons desirous of taking out Patents are requested to transmit, with their applications, such Notes or Drafts as they may know, or be advised, will be available at the Treasury.
July 15.

10:30

BY AUTHORITY OF THE State of North-Carolina.

LOTTERY to encourage the publication of the HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

MIGHEST PRIZE 20,000 DOLLARS.

0	Schen	10.	1
1 Prize of $20,000 is			$20,000
1	10,000		10,000
1	5,000		5,000
1	2,000		2,000
2	1,500		3,000
8	1,000		8,000
10	500		5,000
20	180		3,600
40	100		4,000
50	50		2,500
450	20		9,000
050	10		10,000
366	5		36.830

9,000 Prizes, 7 23,886 Tickets 14,000 Blanks, 5 at 5 Dollars, is CT Not two Blanks to a Prize. 119,430 119,430

500 Tickets to be drawn in a day—to be completed in 18 days drawing. All the numbers to be placed in one wheel, and the Prizes in another.

Stationary Prizes or follows
TICKET (THE LAST DRAWN TICKET ON THE First day, will be entitled to a Prize of Second day, Third day,
Fourth day, Fifth day, Seventh day, 1,000 1,000 Tenth day Eleventh day, Twelfth day, Thirteenth day, 1,000 1,500 Seventeenth day,

Eighteenth day, 20,000 The rest of the Prizes floating in the wheel from the commencement, amount

73.730 DOLLARS.

Prizes payable at the Agency of the Bank of Cape Fear, in Hillsborough, N. C. thirty days after the completion of the drawing, subject to a discount of fifteen per cent. All prizes not demanded within twelve months from the completion of the drawing, will be considered as forfeited to the uses of the Lottery. J. WEBB, Commissioner.

J. WEBB, Commissioner.

Hillsborough, April. 1826.

The attention of the North Carolina public, is respectfully invited to the foregoing scheme. The laudable purpose contemplated will, it is hoped, secure to it the aid of those who are friendly to the interest of literature and science, and the page close of the cathleans who have and the name alone of the gentleman who has consented to act as Commissioner in the man-agement of the Lottery, is a sufficient pledge of the fairness with which it will be conducted.

C. Tickets in this Lottery for sale by Messrs.
C. Fisher, W. H. Slaughter, J. Sneed, and others, Salisbury.

DAN'L. COLEMAN, CPk. Price adv. S2.

Carolinian, notifying said defendant that unless he appear at our next court of pleas and quar-ter sessions, held for said county at the court-house in Concord, on the third Monday in Octo-ber next, then and there replevy, plead or de-mur, otherwise judgment will be taken by demur, otherwise judgment will be taken by default, and execution awarded accordingly.

DAN'L. COLEMAN, CI'k.

Price adv. S2.

State of North-Carolina, Cabarrus county:

OURT of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, July term, 1826. David Stork vs. Ava. Thompson: Original attachment, levied on Tan Yard, to the action of the same county to the satisfaction of the same county.

Sec. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant in this case is not an inhabitant of this state: Ordered, therefore, that publication be made six weeks in the Western Carolinian, notifying said defendant that unless he appear at our next court of pleas and quarter sessions, held for said county at the court-house in Concord, on the third Monday in October next, then and there replevy, plead or demur, otherwise judgment will be taken by default, and execution awarded accordingly.

DAN'L. COLEMAN, CPK.

Com of a letter from Lord Cothrane, to his High ness. Mahammed .41, Pocha of Egupt.

Your employing foreigners in your military and naval service, the privilege which you claim and exercise, of buil ding and equipping ships of war in neutral states, and of purchasing steam ves sels, and hiring transports under neutral ferent parts on its way -- the whole forfligs, for hostile purposes, and to transport to slavery a people whom the Ottoman arms have never yet been able to is called the Perseverance. subdue, warrants a belief, (whatever your sentiments may be,) that the civilized, educated, and liberal portion of mankind will be gratified, that succours similar to those which you unfortunately obtained hitherto from those states, are now about to be afforded to the brave, the oppressed, rious anecdote respecting this famous and suffering Greeks; nor will the advantage derived be wholly theirs; for until you shall cease or be forced to abandon your inhuman traffic in Christian a slave to a Pacha of Asia Minor. His slaves, and the commission of cruelties which stain the character of man, your subjects must inevitably continue barbarous-a state from which it would be a source of great gratification to contribute Pacha took place, and both father and son to release them.

It is true that the Christan world have not of late contended in arms with those defeat of the Turkish Admiral by Oglouof your faith, on points of religion; they The Admiral, who was to answer accorhave not, however, fallen into a state of apathy so great as to see unheeded the disaster, could devise no other mode of esperpetration of those enormities which caping from the consequence than that you are daily committing on their Chris- of throwing the blame on some of his oftain brethern ; a sentiment with which no ficers. His choice fell on the Pacha, the feelings of animosity towards you, or adopted father of Mahommed, and to Mayour people, is combined, but on the con- hommed himself he applied for aid to service consistent with that duty, para him the spoils. He succeeded to his mount to all others, namely, to wipe out utmost wishes. The unfortunate father the stain from the civilized world, of un- and his adopted son visited the Admiral' feelingly and inhumanly co-operating to tent, where the conversation happening exterminate, enslave, and transport to fell on the perfection to which the Enbendage, a whole Christain people; and glish had brought the manufacture of fire such a people, the descendants of those arms, the Admiral produced a pair of Greeks, whose genius laid the chief foundation of literature and the arts-who loaded and the other was not. The one reared those noble monuments and edi- not loaded was presented to the Pachafices, which time, and the more destruc- and while he was admiring its beauty, tive barbarian hand, have yet failed to destroy, and which, compared with the head. He fell to the earth, and his unwretched hovels of your barbarian hordes, natural son completed the work with his may better point out to you, the elevation dagger. they attained, and the prostrate state in which your people are-owing, alas! to the baleful effects of bigotry and despotic Admiral. The bloody head of his pater

Surely, surely, there is ample field for the exercise of your energies at home. in encouraging industry, the arts and sciences, in promoting the civilization of your people, and in enacting equitable laws for the security of persons and property; on which basis the national prosperity of all countries must rest. But should your ambition, not content with bestowing blessings like these on your native land. lead you to soar almost above mortal acts, distant oceans would unite, and the ex-tremities of the globe approach at your command; thus might your name be rendered immortal, and Egypt again become the emporium of commerce, and ing the constitutional authorities They one of the richest and happiest nations attacked a Carthusian convent. near Xerupon earth! How infinitely great the xes, and compelled the monks to give glory of such acts! How despicable the them a supply of money and horses.--

It would be pleasing to support you as the author of great and good works; but political views. it is shameful to permit your present proceedings, and dastardly to leave the unfeeling apostate sons of neutral and Christian nations mopposed, aiding to vest is the only hope of relief. perpetuate barbarism for horrid gain, drawn from the price of Christians torn from their homes, and sold as slaves in foreign lands.

Against these atrocious men, my companions and myself cast the gauntler down, whiskers and mustachoes have disapand will contend in the hope that you and peared; and Englishmen look as they they may perceive your true interests, formerly did. and your great error, and pursue a different course before it shall be too late. Quit the classic, sacred soil of Greece. Let humanity! the barbarous usage of feinfant babes, and other acts yet worse, too pers of May last, passed through this Cihorrid to relate! Release the Christian slaves-pursue an honorable and enlightened path, and we become friends to aid you in your pursuits But should the present course be continued, let the hands into the country to live. Mr. N. says of cruel assassins in your employ count on our opposition; count, too, on our neutralizing the effect of every vessel procured or brought from Christian states. "Hear the word of Lord, ye rulers," (in the prophecy now to be fulfilled.) " Wo to them that go down to Egypt for help the vessel which brought the in and stay." When the Lord shall stretch gence, and he heard nothing of it. and stay." out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is helpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together."

Instead of filling brimful the cup of bitterness, of which you yourself must ultimately drink, how admirably might you Com. Porter, whose aspiring mind caused employ your people, and treasure, the him, in a moment of excitement, to in-rescue their suffering brethren is, that If I err not, it is his destiny to exact conforming yourself to the dictates of from the mother country, by the brilreason and humanity, you may live long liancy of his achievements, an acnowlto benefit mankind; and as you are more edgement of the independence of the enlightened than your predecessors, so Southern republics."

may you become humble and just. (Sign COCHRANE ed)

The London Courier says it had been kept a secret that lord Cochrane has actually gone to join the Greeks. A steam vessel was fitted out from England, under his lordship's directions, which was to be joined by several vessels from difming a considerable squadron. The ship on board which his lordship sailed,

THE PACHA OF EGYPT.

In a work recently published at Paris by the Count de Noe, entitled Memoirs relatifs a l'expedition Angluise partie de Bengale en 1800 &c. we meet with a cu

Egyptian despot. "Mahommed Yonsouf, a Circassian by birth, had been sold in his youth as master, struck with his handsome face and manifest talents, conceived a strong liking for him and adopted him as his son. Soon after this, the rebellion of Oglou oined the force sent to suppress it .--They arrived just in time to witness the ding to usage, with his head for such a , a desire to render you every good draw his father into the snare, promising London made pistols, one of which was the Admiral discharged the other at his

> "This execrable act procured for Mahommed the post of Kiava Bay or Vicenal friend was sent to Constantinople, and his memory was charged with the disgrace of a defeat which another person had suffered. Not many years elapsed, before, through the protection of Captain Pacha and the intrigues of the Seraglio, Mahommed Yousouf was raised to the station of Vice Roy of Egypt !"

> And this is the man who is now the chief enemy of Grecian freedom, whose son Ibrahim is the only military comman der of talents in the ranks of the Turkish troops.

Guerilla parties are roving about the mountainous districts of Andalusia, defyfame of a tyrant conqueror—the ruler of They have likewise put one or two villages under contribution. The French take no notice of them, as they have no

The misery and wretchedness prevailing throughout Spain can hardly be credited. The promise of an abundant har

The South American States owe 20 millions sterling to London capitalists The population of those states that have borrowed is 25 millions.

It is said in a London paper, that black stocks are going out of fashion; that large

North Carolina, and whose embarkation tem of Tailoring." mates, and the hewing in pieces of their from Beaufort, was mentioned in the paty a few days since, on his return homeleft Hayti, the emigrants were comfortably settled, and very generally satis also, that the paragraph which has been going the rounds relative to the block ading of St. Domingo by a French Fleet. is incorrect, as he sailed from there on the 20th July, several days later than the vessel which brought the intelli-Raleigh Register.

friend of Commodore Porter to Mr. Niles, says, "Do not be surprised that waste whereof is rearing to you barbar- fringe the barriers of discipline in his ian successors, to prolong the bondage of own country, should at the head of the allied navies of Mexico and Colombia, The Christian prayer of those called to become the terror of the Spanish Coast.

Mr. RANDOLPH.

In relation to the statements that have been made respecting the conduct of Mr. Randolph while on his passage to Liverpool in the packet ciety, until the Session of the Concord Presbyship Alexander, Capt, Baldwin, we have been requested to publish the following extract of a day of September next, it being the 7th day of letter from Mr. R. himself to his friend in this N. Y. Merc, Adv.

" On Monday night, the fifth of June, I went upon deck as is my custom previous to my turning in for the night. I saw nobody but the second mate, Mr. Matthews, and the helmsman. I was conversing with Mr. Matthews about the rate of the ship and the fine run that we were making, when Capt. Baldwin suddenly appeared upon deck. The first intimation that I had of his presence was an abrupt, angry and insolent repri-mand of myself for violating the discipline of the ship by speaking to the officer on watch. I said that 'I would to below; but that it was the first time I had everheard of its being irregular (in the absence of his superiors) to address one's self to the officer in romanand. My resentment of the attack was minifested more by my maner than attack was minifested more by my manner than by my words He replied that "I should be by my words He replied that "I should be treated like a gentleman when I behaved royself like one." answerfor his insolence when we should reach Liverpol;' meaning to his owners. To which he uttered threat, that he would make me responutterea threat, that he would make no responsible thim when we got ashore. I added that barking dogs did not bite. He went on to talk, and I nid to all his questions 'as to what I meant o insinuate by that, a repetition of my affimation 'that barking dogs did not bite.' He then Ift the quarter deck, and I soon afterwards meanly meanly in the statement of the control of the statement of the control of the statement of the statem vards urned in.

" Mr Matthews, to whom I addressed a note the next mening, cannot gainsay one word of this statement—however disagreeable it may be to him, as t ought to be to every well regulated mind, te be called upon to testify in a case like this. To the urbanity and obliging temper of Mr. Wet the first mate, and of Mr. Matthews, I bear a heerful and willing testimony

More " Scenes in Kentucku."

Again we have from the West a mel ancholy tale. We learn, from a private source, that, aout two weeks ago, Dr Young, a Representative in Congress from the state of Kentacky, shot and killed, in the strict of Elizabethtown, Mr. a character was the cause of this act, as opinion. Mr. Hardin was one who opposed the election of Dr. Y. and is supposed to have been partly led by vindictive feelings to commit the outrage which foreran his death. Nothing short of an atrocious violation of the sanctuary of his domestic hopes and happiness, could have instigated a man of the amiable character of Dr. Y. to this rash act. Na. Int.

In Nelson county, on the 14th ult., wo men, named Kauffman and Courtcommitted to prison.

as Bradley, who was tried and found guilty on the 25th.

One would think, that in late scenes, murderone would taink, that in late scenes, murder-ers would find little encouragement to prosecute their bloody designs. But a fell, uncompromising spirit seems to be stalking through this common-wealth, which nothing can check but an inflex-ible execution of the laws.

Horatio Cozens, a distinguished member of the bar, and formerly of Washington City, was assassinated at St. Louis, Missouri, on the 13th uft by French Strother. Mr. Cozens were en-gaged as counsel against Mr. Strother; and the latter finding the cause was going against him, asked the former to step aside, as he wished to speak to him. Mr. Cozens complied with his request, and Mr. S. stabbed him two or three speak to him. Mr. Cozens complied with his request, and Mr. S. stabbed him two or three times in the breast and once in the neck with a dirk, and killed ham instantly. Mr. Strother was committed to prison.

Indian Com, is beyond doubt the most valuafew days since, on his return home.

Nixon informs us, that before he It furnishes both to man and beast, the most healthful and nutritive diet, and in the Northern and middle states is not sufficiently appreciated : in the Southern states it constitutes a great and invaluable variety in the article Bread, better adapted to the health of the consumers than is that of any other grain.

Phil. Sat. Eve. Post.

We have learned, with much surprise and pleasure, that a load of new Cotton was received, on yesterday, at the warehouse of Messrs, Heard and Cook, in this city, from the plantation of Paul Pitzsimons, Esq. in Jefferson county. The load consisted of seven bales. It is said to be A letter from a warm and personal that another load will be received on Monday next, from the same plantation. Chronicle, > Extract of a letter, dated Morrisville, (Alab.) July 26... The Bilious fever rages in this section of the country to an alarming extent, and with unusual fatality. The prospects of the planters have never been as flattering as the present crop presents.

Sea Serpent .-- The Sea-Serpent was of South Carolina, by a number of people. They describe it as being 50 feet "Patrick Henry," he is in a fair way, girl (aged 6 years) was in the yard gathering

ROWAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The meeting of this Society is postpoted, on account of the meeting of the Iredell Bible So. tery, to be held in this place, on the first Thurs-J. O. FREEMAN, Pres't. the month. Salisbury, July 26, 1826.

TROM THE NORTH-CAROLINA JOURNAL, The powers of the Vice President of the United States, as President of the Mr. R. succeed only partially in this object, he Senate, have given rise to an animated discussion in the prints. This subject interesting from its intrinsic importance, has acquired additional importance from the circumstance of the discussion being chiefly maintained by the President of the United States, under the signature of American. "Patrick Henry," on the one side, and by the Vice President under that of by the Vice President under that of We observe, in one of our mail papers, fur. "Onslow," on the other: at least, to these ther interesting particulars of the life, character, two gentlemen, common report has as- &c. of Beauchamp and his wife, previous to their To which I retorted 'that he should signed the authorship of these several

We had intended laving before our rea ders, "Patrick Henry" and "Onslow," but find them too numerous and too long for insertion in a weekly paper.

Although we had, in common with many others, supposed Mr. Adams to be the author of "Patrick Henry," yet we are confident that he never could have written the last number, No. 5, published under that name. Descending from the season, the pervading gloom among our citizens argumentative strain of the preceding has been temporarily dispelled by a plentcons numbers, the author indulges in as much personal invective and vulgar abuse as would disgrace an "hireling" writer. "Thee are the facts of the case stripped of all color and irrelevant matter. I could add explanations, but to you, who know me, it is undischarge of his official duties, while presiding over the Senate-charging as crime the placrity with which he met the Senate on the first day of its Session, and a quarter of land, this year, one hundred and and impugning his selection of the Buand ing Committees of that body, the author of " Patrick Henry" has included in his denunciations many of the most venerable, useful and distinguished men, of the Senate and the nation. Of General feet 7 inches, on his way home, elated with his Hardin, a lawer from Breckenridge Jackson he speaks as a "rejected candicounty. Of so aggravating and atrocious date for the Presidency, whose disappointment, and that of his partisans, heels over head to the bottom of as filthy a ditch to shield Dr. J. from prosecution, and were severe and vindictive;" of the ven- as any in the world, which so convulsed the almost to justily the act, in the public erable and patriotic Nathaniel Macon he people with laughter, that they were actually says, "that even he must suspect you obliged to lie down to it !!! Verily, John Bull [Mr. Calhoun] of bitter irony, when you must be a wonderfully risible old fellow! We insinuated that he was qualified, by hope he may laugh away his calamities, and foreither abilities or knowledge, for the Chair in which you placed him." "En-tertaining for him [Mr. Macon] the veneration that age, integrity and long continued endeavours to serve the public, always procure, even when united with a narrowness of mind which education cannot enlarge, and covered by an incrus tation of prejudices which experience ney, were shot dead, on a by path, it is cannot remove, I will not agree that you supposed by a father and two sons, should elude reproach, by exposing him named Watson, who have since been to ridiculer!! "In appointing the Committee on Foreign Relations, you per-fectly knew that Mr. Macon's labours On the 23d ult. a convict in the pen-irentiary, named Edmund Johnson, was tory concurrence in such proceedings as killed by a fellow convict, named Thom- animosity to the administration might stimu as Bradley, who was tried and found late it to adopt."—Of the talented, the high-minded and honourable Mr. Tazewell, whose name is above reproach and whose patriotism is of the highest and rendered "equal and exact" justice to our brightest order, "Patrick Henry" says, selves and all our patrons. We hope what we that he is remarkable for nothing have now given will suffice for the present; as more than for the faculty of obscuring so much matter has accumulated on our hands, the distinction between truth and error; which we are under promise to publish, that whose moral sense was so perverted as we might be charged with bad faith, were we to estimate discussions on the weighiest to devote to any one subject more space than national concerns, only as combats of intellectual agility; and who was therefore earnest in proportion as he was wrong." And does "Patrick Henry" lately held in Philadelphia; and should have unmindful of his obligations, so lost to all the feelings and sentiments of a gentleman and a man of honor, as to "delight in torturing truth as much as an circular shall go in our next. angler in impaling a worm," by pre-Mr. Charles Bell, of Carlisle, Pennsylsenting "a measure emphatically popu-Shame ! Shame.

" Patrick Henry" speaks of Mr. Benton as one "who had solemnly exfor a hatred of the administration equally deadly but less vental, because it sprung, not from a generous resent-York, he pays this singularly delicate lied on, when a recommendation of the Executive was intangible by argument. to assail it with all the subtlety and science of an educated political juggler.

These are a few specimens style and manner which "Patrick Heary" has ornamented his fifth and last number. Although report assigns the production of these essays to the pen of the President, yet we think it improbable -- nay, hardly possible -- that he should so far forget the respect due to his station and his own dignity, as to descend to the columns of a newspaper to disparage the characters and impugn seen lately off Long-Bay, on the Coast the motives of men of high standing. But if the President be the author of

Salisbury:

AUGUST 29, 1826.

It is said Mr. Randolph's object in visiting England, is a political one -- to endeavor to prevail on the British government to reduce the enormous duty on the importation of tobecco. the duty is now more than 1300 percent.; that is, the importer pays about 70 dollars duty on what costs only 5 dollars in this country. Should will have done a very acceptable service to his country; and he ought in charity to be forgiven his mawkish anxiety to humor the whims of John Bull; and his eulogizing every thing En. glish, to the disparagement of every thing marriage, and of the base treachery of Sharpe to the latter. We will extract the article next The editors of the Newbern Sentinel say they anderstand Mr. Hutton is engaged dramatizing the tragical events connected with the murder of Col. Sharp, of Kentucky, the execution of Beauchamp, and the self-destruction of his wife.

Water Melons ... Amidst the general apprehensions of a scarcity of provisions the ensuing supply of that grateful fruit, the water-melon, However unsubstantial they may be, as food, they afford a momentary luxury, that makes one forget it is a season of scarcity.

A correspondent of the Newbern Sentinel. says that a person in that neighborhood realized, from the sale of Watermelons raised on one acre tweeve dollars and fifty conto ! !

----An English paper says, that at an extraordinary leaping match, in Surry, an Irishman, who was the victor, having, at a single leap, cleared 19 victory, attempted to leap a wide ditch, but his feet slipping at the start, he was precipitated "that even he must suspect you obliged to lie down to it !!! Verily, John Bull get the misery and starvation which have but recently been stalking through his country.

The Warrenton paper says the rage for remo ving to the West, was never greater among the people of that section of country, than at the present time. The editor advises all poor people that are able to move, to do so, and flee from a threatened famine.

In this week's paper, will be found pretty copious extracts from one of Mr. Randolph's speeches delivered in the United States' senate last winter. In accordance with solicitations from a number of our readers, we ought sooner to have published extracts from Mr. R's speeches; but hitherto other matter has so imperiously claimed our early attention, that we could not well have done so, and, at the same time, was absolutely necessary.

We have been requested to publish the circular of the committee of the Jackson Meeting done so this week, but for our anxiety to get the matter above alluded to off our hands, it having been in type a number of days: the

TIVE GOLD

Last week's Charlotte (Meckienburg) Jourthe flavings, and burnings, impalings of sent there by the Society of Friends, in this people cease; and oh! shocking to South Carolina Society of Friends, in Ward's unrivalled Patent protractor sysan exhibition of his "intellectual agili- is daily carried through the streets of the town, in wagons, carts, &c. to be washed, there being no water convenient to where it is found; that the proportion of gold the earth yields, has not been ascertained, &c. &c. Gold is now found in various places in Mecklenburg county; and, from personal observation, and the information ment, but from the calculating spirit of of those skilled in the science of mineralogy, party," and to Mr. Van Buren, of New- we find that the quality of the precious metal. and the geological appearances where found. compliment -- " the Chairman [Mr. Van | do not differ materially from those of Montgom-Buren] might, you knew, be safely re- ery and Cabarrus. Gold has been found, in greater or less quantities, in almost every instance where an experiment has been made within that section of country denominated the "Gold Region;" so that when ground is broken in a new place, and particles of gold found, it cannot very appropriately be called " Another Gold Mine" ... when, by a very natural figure of speech, the whole region of country may be termed a Mine of gold.

---Melancholy Accident, ... We have been informed, within a few days past, that the youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Ferebec, of the Forks of the Yadkin, in this county, (but formerly of Currituck county) was killed by lightning, in his yard, on the 23d day of May last. The little effectually, to Jonathan-Russell himself. together some young godings, to secure them any occasion, however transient or immediate impending storm, when a shelf of lightning struck a walout tree within about 20 material, is debate confined to the subject hefore the House."

In the same debate, Mr. Clay being seemed to the ground, and passed off in forks, one of which is supposed to have been the fatal case of the little innocent's death. A goose this occasion to repeat the caution,—which has been given for the thousandth time,—that the sure way of avoiding the fatal casualities caused by lightning, is, daring thunder showers, either been the fatal casualities caused by lightning, is, daring thunder showers, either by lightning, is, daring thunder showers, either because of the little innocent to derive the fatal casualities caused to a continuous proposed to have been the fatal casualities caused the 25th ult. it was resolved to set apart the 25th ult. it was reso to remain in an open field, distant from any tree, (especially old ones) or to go into a house, and stand in the middle of the floor. If this precau tion be strictly observed, we will go security that very few deaths will happen from lightning

ting prethe cco :

ould

s of

fur.

heir

arpe

next

they zing

n of pre-uing

zens

ized.

acre

and dina-

d 19

h his t his

ated

ditch

I the

ually

Bull

٠.

peo-

retty

lph's

enate

tions

oner

ech-

ious-

ould

ime.

ands.

that we.

than cir-

eting

have get our.

cov-

arth

own.

eing

that not

und

and.

tion

ogy.

und,

om-

inade

the

bro-

and.

e of rest

ttle

ELECTION RETURNS.

BLECTION RETURNS.

Wilkes.—Montfort Stokes, senate; Nathaniel Gordon, John Saintelair, commons. We have not learned the state of the poll.

Rutherford.—Martin Shuford, senate; John Carson, William Richardson, commons.

State of the poll—for senate, Shuford 559, James Erwin 476; for commons, Carson 850, Richardson 702, Jesse H. Benton 524, Joseph Green 451. John Bradley 304.

Ashe—Alexarder B. McMillan, senate; Zachariah Baker. James Blevins. commons.

State of the poll—No opposition in the senate; for commons, Baker 254, Blevins 236, Lewis 217, Herbert 200, Baldwin 106, Hartly 106, Weaver 105.

Surry .- Pleasant B. Robests, senate; Gallahu

Mone, J. Aronold, commons. State of the poil—for senate, Roberts 564, Poindexter 437; for commons, Arnold 910, Moore 879, Mackie 706, Thompson 391. sherland - Alexander Elliot, senate : Ar chibald McDearmid, Joseph Hodges, commons

Bladen—James J. VcKay, senate; John J.

Bladen—James J. Vckay, senate; John J. Gilmore, John J. McMillian, commons.

Richmond—Francis T. Leake, senate; Archibald McNair, Henry Dockery, commons.

Robeson—John Gilchrist, senate; W. Alford,

3. Howell, commons.

New Hanover—Thomas Devane, senate;

William W. Jones, John Kerr, commons.

Sampson—John Sellers, senate; David Un-derwood, Thomas Sutton, commons.

Duplin—Stephen Miller, senate; William R.

Duplin—Stephen Miller, senate; William R. Frederick, Benjamin Best, commons.

Brunswick—Beajamin R. Locke, senate; Alfred Moore, Jacob Leonard, jr. commons.

Caswell—Barllett Yancey, senate; Charles D. Donolo, John E. Lewis, commons.

Person—Robert Vanhook, senate; Thomas Methelee, Thomas Webb, commons.

McGehee, Thomas Webb, commons. -- William Bullock, senate; Josiah

McKiel, William Jackson, commons,

Pasquotank—Thomas Bell, senate; William

J. Hardy, Thomas Jordan, commons,

Currituck—Samuel Salyear, senate; Willoughly Barnard, Enoch Ball, commons.

longally Barmard, Eroch Ball, commons.

Canden... Willis Wilson, senate; Thomas
Dozier Simeon Jones, commons.

Orange... William Montgomery, senate; John Boon, John Stoci ard, commons.

State of the poll...for senate, Montgomery
740, Dr. James S. Smith 1343...the Hillsboro Recorder says In. Smith 114 to a manage him Recorder says Dr. Smith did not announce him-self as a candidate, but that the above votes were obtained for him by some of his friends; for the commons, Boon 1959, Stockard 1926, James commons, Boon 1359, Stockard 1226, James Mebane 1681. Jones-Risden McDaniel, senate; Enoch Foy, O'Bryan Cox, commons,

Greene-Jesse Speight, senate; Charles Edwards, Joseph Ellis, commons, Halifax.—Isham Matthews, senate; George
E. Spraill, A. A. Wyche, commons,
Northampton-E. Hollaman, senate; R. B.
Gary, John H. Patterson, commons.

Fauetteville-Robert Strange.

Fayetteville—Bobert Strange.

Wilmington—Joseph A. Hill.

Edenten—James Predell.

State of the poll for Town of Halifax—Potter

28. Dixie Fenner 8;—in ALL, thirty-six votes!!

FREEDOM OF DEBATE.

It has been frequently asserted lately, that the debates of the last session of Congress were unprecedented for violence and irrelevancy---and so we thought. But a writer in the National Intelligencer has availed himself of an old file of that paper, to quote its remarks on the proceedings of Congress during the war of 1812, and some passages from speeches then delivered, which shew that an equal latstude and freedom of debate were then tolerated, even in the Senate. In the Intelligencer of Jan. 28, 1814, the great power of Banks! Editors say, "The House of Reprethen Speaker of the House.

The following, from the same paper, shows what hard words were bandled in

"The Senate, we learn, have been equally engaged in debate, perhaps of a more dignified, but not less free and seare character, that that in the other House. The ablest members on each side have taken the floor. There, too, as well as in the House, the war and its conductors have been branded as wicked, imbecile, and murderous; and those the have thus thrown the gauntlet have in retaliation, been charged as a wicked, desperate, and nefatious faction. Perseemly terms, and we agree with them. There is an old adage, however, that hard words break no bones," &c.

The Intelligencer of February 15, of

he same year, says:

There never did prevail in any legislative body, within the extent of our reaing or personal knowledge, so entire a freedom of debate as now characterizes both branches of the National Legisla-There is no limit to its scope, whilst it continues, if on any subject adlitting general debate; and scarcely on

ing are among his remarks:
"But, sir, I shall quit this unpleasant subject; I will turn from one whom no sense of decency or propriety could restrain from soiling the carpet on which he treads, to gentlemen who have not forgotten what is due to themselves, the place in which we are assembled, nor to those by whom they are opposed."

In the same debate, Mr. King, of Mass., (brother, if we mistake not, of Rufus King,) thus spoke of the venerable James Madison : " It is not too much, then, to assert that he bought his way into the Presidency: and thus ingloriously rose on the misery and disgrace of his country!"

Here, then, it is seen that Mr. Clay, when it was his right and his duty to preserve order, countenances, and even takes a part in, a debate equally violent with those of the late session; and yet he and his friends now condemn Mr. Calhoun for merely suffering a debate which he had clearly no right to stop.

Carolina Observer.

FROM THE MIDDLESEX (CON.) GAZETTE.

About 30 years since, Mr. Bushneil left his native town, (Saybrook, Connecticut) and from that period no information was received respecting him, until very recently, when a gentleman arrived in Say brook from Georgia, with the intelligence State, leaving about 9,000 dollars in cash; accumulated principally by the practice of Medicine; which Mr. B. had given to him, he being a particular friend, provided that if he should, upon inquiry, discover that Mr. B's connexions in Saybrook, were from their character, worthy of the property, such connexions were to receive the whole amount. The gentleman with whom it was entrusted, ascertained, on reaching Saybrook, that Mr. Bushnell's nearest relatives were four nephews, and those all men of worth and integrity, and faithfully divided the prop-erty among them. Mr. Bushnell, the donor, bore a very high reputation as a mechanical genius, and was esteemed an exemplary member of society, although possessing many eccentricities of charac-He left unfinished a piece of mechanism, upon which he had bestowed much pains—this, also, he bequeathed to his nephew, in Saybrook.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

county, Pennsylvania, it was resolved to appropriate the money collected, to the relief of his surviving daughter. A similar appropriation will doubtless be made of all monies collected on this occasion.

It is a curious fact, that the empire of China was full of books before there was a man in Europe who could read or

Mr. Monroe, Ex-President, has failed in selling his estate in Albemarle. It is mortgaged to the U. S. Branch Bank, Washington. The Bank is not disposed to push the sale, and has given Mr. M. a while longer to get its value. Mark the

It is said Gen. Washington on retiring sentatives have been engaged for two from the Presidency, was obliged to sell days in discussion on a bill to raise three an estate. Mr. Monroe has advertised his egiments of riflemen, in the course of for sale—and Mr. Jefferson applied for a lottery to dispose of his. Few can estibeen so much as mentioned by three- mate the unavoidable expenses of a Presifourths of the speakers." Mr. Clay was dent-and how much he is subjected to by precedents.

It is computed that the blacks increase about 60,000 a year in this country, and the Senate at that day. There is a family likeness between them and some of thousand a year. [At this rate, how long Mr. Randolph's at the last session. of them.]

Cotton of this year's growth, raised in Nottoway county, Virginia, has been taken to Petersburg. The staple was pretty good, and the cultivator stated that but for the drought, the crops would have been fine in his neighborhood.

The city of Jefferson is the seat of government in the state of Missouri. Among the improvements in the new town of Lafayette, Missouri, the first mentioned is the erection of a jail.

At a dinner given on St. Patrick's day in Mexico, our Minister, Mr. Poinsett, gave as a toast, "the emancipation of the Catholics of Ireland." Mr. Ward, the British Charge des Affairs, defended the policy of his government, to which defence Mr. Poinsett replied. A little boy was boiled to death in a distillery, near Easton, Pa. The unhappy father only discovered it when stirring up the liquor—he saw the fragments of his child's body, which had been boiled to pieces.

through the city, in a cart, labelled "Pluck honorably acquitted."

The Colonel has since been to New York, where he filled his pockets by exhibiting himself at a shilling a sight. This beats the North Carolina Malitia.

The front of Stephen Girard's bank is undergoing repair; a scaffold has been erected several days to effect this object.

THE CEDAR APPLE.

A gentleman of unquestionabe teracity called at our office this week, and informed us of an experiment which was made a few days go with this apple, on a colored child about two years ild, at his farm in this neighborhood, the esult of which was truly satisfactory. The child took the apple of last year's gowth, reduced to powder, and prepared in sirup, two successive mornings, fating; the consequences of which was, the expulsion of more than a pint of worms. The child, though much reduced and debilitated by fevers previously to the apple being administered, is now doing well, and has had a complete return of appetite for food. Annaholis Gaz.

TESTIMONY OF RESPECT.

that Mr. Bushnell had lately died in that the death of Mr. Valentine Sarke, a non-commissioned officer of the company, the following resolutions were unanimously glopted:

> 1. Resolved, That, as a testimony of the friendship and respect which the members of this corps collectively and individually felt for Mr. Valentine Storke, while living, and which they feel for his memory now that he is no more, they will wear crape on the left arm one month from the next day of parade

> 2. Resolved, That this company do, on the present occasion, most sincerely sympathize with the surviving family of the deceased, upon whom the high regard entertained by this company for the deceased, as an officer and a man.

3. Resolved, That the Rev. John Reck be requested to deliver a Funeral Discourse, at the Lutheran Church in this town, at such time as may suit the wishes of the friends of the deceased; and that this company attend on the occasion, dressed in the uniform of their company,

4. Resolved, That Capt. Lendy, and Messrs. Wm. Chambers, and J. R. C. Neagle, be ap-At a meeting of the subscribers to the Jefferson fund, residing in Washington deceased as to the provisions of the foregoing deceased, as to the provisions of the foregoing resolution.

The Markets.

FAYETTEVILLE PRICES, August 16.

of all monies collected on this occasion.

The number of marriages solemnized by I. Hicks, Esq. in Bucks county, Pa. amount in all to four hundred and eighty Cotton, 9 a 9½; flour, fine, 5 a 6, superfine scarce, $7; wheat, $1 a 1 15; whiskey.

40 to 45; peach brandy, 60 a 70; apple do. amount in all to four hundred and eighty Light 70, 80 and 125; bacon, 9 10; salt, Turks 55 69; corn. $1 a1 25; bacca. 9 10; salt, Turks Island. 70 a80 per bush; molasses, 40 421; sugar, muscovado, 10 a 11; coffee, prime grees, 15 20; 2d and 3d quality, 15 a 18; tea, byson, $1 20 a 1 20; flasseed, 75; tallow, 11 a 12; beeswax, 30 a 82, rice 3 50 to 4 per 100 lbs; iron, 5\frac{1}{2} a 6, pr, 100 lb.; tobacco, leaf, 4 a 5; manufactured, 5 a 20 pr. cwt. Observer.

CHARLESTON PRICES, Aug. 14.

Cotton, S. Island, 22 a 30; stained do. 10 a 12 Maine and Santee, 18 a 22 cts.; short staple, 84 a 10½ cents; Whiskey, 33 a 35 cents; Bacon, 78; Hams, 8 a 9; Lard, 9½ a 10½; Bagging, Dun-78; Hams, 8 a 9; Lard, 93 a 103; Baggeng, Dun-dec and Invernesa, (42 inch.) 35 a 22; Coffice, Prime Green, 163 a 17 Inf. to good, 13 to 16, Georgis Bank Bills—1 to 13 per cent. insecunt. North-Carolina Do.—33 to 4 per cent discount Cottons.—In Uplands there was some business and Mr. Jefferson applied for a doing in the early part of the week, at our quotodispose of his. Few can estitations; but the last advices have nearly put a stop to transactions, even at lower rates.

Flour. - We quote this article at from 5 to 5

dollars.

Corn.—Such is the diversity of opinion with respect to this great necessary of life, that we are at a loss how to quote it—we have put it down at 82 to 88 cents—but the arrival on Saturday, of several cargoes, may reduce itstill

CAMBEN PRICES. Anz. 12.

Cotton, 71 a 81; corn, 81 20 a 1 25; bacon, 10 to 11; whiskey, 42 to 45; brandy, peach 65 to 75, apple 60 to 65; tal-11 a 12; flour, 6 25 to 7; tolacco, (manufactured) 12 to 15.

- Cheraw, Aug. 18. S6 per Barrel, the supply in Market of each is limited. Bacon 10 cts. at wholesale; Beef, 6 and 7 cents at retail.

Marrico,

In this county, on the 24th inst. by James W. Ramsay, Esq. Mr. Paul Turner to Miss Hannah

DIED,

A little boy was boiled to death in a sixtillery, near Easton, Pa. The unhappy father only discovered it when stirring the liquor—he saw the fragments of is child's body, which had been boiled of pieces.

At a meeting at Nashyille, (Ten-)

In Lincoln county, on the 6th inst. of a linger-like of the late ing complaint, Mrs. Sarah Fisher, relict of t happiness. [COMMUNICATED.]

In Orange county, on the 2d inst. Mr. Alfred
A. Holt, son of Michael Holt, Esq.
In Charlotte, on the 15th instant, Mr. Ezekiel Abernathy, of the firm of Kendrick & Abernathy.

In Mecklenburg county, on the 13th instant,
Mr. Ezekiel Robinson, aged about 40, one of Mr. Ezekiel Robinson, aged about 40, one of the elders of Sugar Creek Church.

On the 10th inst. at the residence of James Spratt, Esq. York District, S. C. in the 22d year of her age, Miss Mary E. Hartt, daughter of the late Gen. David Hartt, of Mecklenburg county.

Journal.

At Edenton, in this state, on the 8th inst. after a long and distressing illness, James Wills., Esq. editor of the Edenton Gazette, in the fitteth year of his age. The paper of the 11th inst. contains an address from Mrs. Wills, widow of the late editor, announcing her intention of Dostscript.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Hyde—Benjamin Forman, senate; Tillman Farrow, John J. Bonner, commons. Pitt...-John Joyner, senate; Marshall Dickin-ion, William Andrews, commons.

APPOINTMENT OF JUDGE. TESTIMONY OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Salisbury Light Infantry Blues, on the 21st inst. convened on occasion of the death of Mr. Valentine Sarke, a non-com-Nath, Wille P. Mangust, Esqr. the present representative in Congress from the Raleigh district, was chosen on the first ballotting. There will now be a vacancy in the representation in Congress from this state: the Governor will doubtless order an election to fill it, in time for the new member to take his seat at the commencement of the session, (the first Monday in During last week, (it being the week of our county court) a Society was organized, whose object is the improvement of the breed of Horses in this county. A sufficient sum was subscribed to warrant the offering of pretty rethe surviving family of the deceased, upon whom it has pleased divine providence to bring so bottom that may be exhibited by that noble heavy an affliction; and that they be assured of animal, the ensuing fall, over the course at this place. We have been promised, in time for our next, the articles of association, the election of officers, &c. of the Club.

> We understand, verbally, that an insurrection among the Negroes, broke out in and near Ches-ter, South-Carolina, a few days since; but that by the promptness and vigilance of the citizens, it was soon queiled. It is said there are about 40 negroes in Chester Jail.

> We believe that only two members of the Cabinet are at present in this city. Mr. Adams is in Massachusetts, settling his father's estate; Mr. Clay is in Kentucky, stiending barbeeues; and Mr. Barbour and Mr. Wirt are in Virginia, on a isit. Washington Telegraph. county, at the rail term, 1820, for an order to dispose of the real estate of said Brickhouse, in Rowan county; when and where they can appear, and object, if they think proper, ings intelligence of the revolt and supporting the Listancian of the Listancian of the Listancian in County. brings intelligence of the revolt and suppression of the Janizzaries, in Constantinople. The ostensible cause of revolt, was the attempt on the part of the Grand Sultan, to put into force the European system of arming and drilling. The Sul-tan Mahomet, (or Mahmoud) acted with great personal courage, and it is the first instance we believe, in which an organiz a Piano, and stage. accomplish the revolution meditated. The Corps of Janizzaries is to be sup-We should hope something from this revolt, for the cause of the from this revolt, for the cause of the Greeks, but for the Proverb, the "Renegadoes are worse than native Turks."

The Janizzaries, recruited from Christenials will be furnished. hate Christ, rather more than the native bern adorers of the Prophet.

The celebrated Whig, Brougham, and Lerd John Russell (the annual mover of reform) have both lost their elections for Parliament. We hope Mr. Brougham A. TORRENCE, Ext. Aug. 14th, 1826. will avail himself of the chance, to pay his long promised visit to the U. States.

Corn, and Corn Meal, command $1 by the call the Council of State together, and ad Load, and $1 25 by the Bushel.—Plour sells at vise with them on the propriety of laying call the Council of State together, and adan Embargo, in order to prevent provisi ons of every kind from being exported from the State during the present and ensuing season.

The framer of this petition had no doubt taken up the idea that the Governor and Council possessed this power, under the 19th section of the Constitution of this State; but he ought to have recollected, that by the Constitution of the U. States, the power of regulating com-U. States, the power of regulating commerce with foreign nations and among merce with foreign nations and among the several States (which includes the occupied by John Kinder, on said street,—or so much of each as will satisfy the Commissioners' power of laying embargoes) is placed extended to the bands of Congress.

AARON WOOLWORTH,

Ral. Register.

A Spanish vessel dare not leave port with-out a convoy. "Yesterday," says one letter, "about 30 sail of coasters left this place under convoy of a small frigate, a sloop of war, a brig and a schooner. The Colombian schooner Republicana, Gaudolfo, and one other vessel, are cruizing in the Straits, and have taken and burn several craft."

Dissolution.

At Edenton, in this state, on the 8th inst. after a long and distressing illness, Iames Wills, Esq. editor of the Edenton Gazette, in the fiftieth year of his age. The paper of the 11th inst. contains an address from Mrs. Wills, widow of the late editor, announcing her intention of continuing (under her own editorial management,) the publication, of the paper, for the benefit of herself and family.

Near Woodville, Mississippi, on the 3d ult. Col. Henry Hampton, (formerly of South-Carolina) a distinguished officer of the Revolution, in the 74th year of his age.

Dissolution.

The Mercantile Copartnership heretofore existing in Wilkesboro,' N. C. under the firm of S. F. Patterson & Co. is this day dissolved by mutual concent. All persons indebted to the said concern, are particularly requested to settle their accounts with S. P. Patterson, as speedly claims against the concern, will please present them to him for payment.

S. F. PATTERSON, WM. P. WAUGH, JOHN FINLEY.

JOHN FINLEY. Augt. 18th, 1826.

Regimental Order.

HEAD QUARTERS,
Salisbury, Aug. 23, 1826.

THE officers of 63d Reg't. N. C. Militia will appear at the Court-House in Salisbury, on Friday, the 8th day of Sept. next, there to be drilled in the manual exercise and field crolutions in recognized with the laws of the Sept. tions, in accordance with the laws of the U. S Muskets will be furnished in town. By order of Wm. H. Kerr, Col. Comdt. 2026. RUFUS REED, 4-4j.

Plantation for Sale. THE subscriber offers for sale his Plantation in Wilkes county, N. C. on the Yadkin river, eight miles above Wilkesborough. The plantation contains 335 acres, between 70 and 80 acres of which is first rate bottom land; 120 water, &c. there is not a plantation in Wilkes county that exceeds this.

Will also be sold, fifteen hundred bushels of Will also be sold, fifteen hundred bushels of CORN, together with, or without, the stock belonging to the premises. Voung Negroes will be taken in payment, at a fair price. Persons wishing to purchase such a plantation, would do well to apply soon, as a bargain can be had in the premises. JESSE ROBINETT.

Aug. 19, 1126.

Pocket Book Lost.

MISSING from the subscriber, while in, or somewhere near, the house of Thomas Holmes, on Friday evening, the 35th inst. a small red morocco pocket-book, a good deal rubbed, with a $2 South-Carolina bank bill, with one syllable written on the face of it, and a 75 cent bill; and a number of receipts and other papers. A rea-anable reward will be paid for the pocket-book, money and papers, by me, LEEROY HIGH POWER, Augt 26, 1825.

Heirs of Henry Brickhouse. MOTICE is hereby given to the heirs of Henry Brickhouse, dec'd, that application will be made to the Court of Equity for Rowan county, at the Fall term, 1826, for an order to Public Sale. THE property of the Thespian Society will be sold at publick auction, at the Court House in Salisbury, on Saturday, the 2d of Sept. next, unless otherwise disposed of previous to that day;—consisting of Maps, Globes, Benches, a Piano, and an excellent Scenery for a small stage.

2025
S. L. FERRAND,

August 17, 1826.

To Book-Binders. A BOOK-RINDER, who is steady, may secure

August 2, 1826.

Estate of Albert Torrence. TAKE Notice.—All those indebted to the Estate of Albert Torrence, dec'd, are re-

For Sale,

Liberty seems to be receding in England

Ib.

Bad Crops—Λ few citizens of this county, and of an adjoining one, alarmed at the appearance of our crops, from the long continued drought, a few weeks ago sent a petition to the Govennor, praying him to a petition to the Govennor, praying him to

The celebrated American JACK DON PIZARRO,

Will. stand the ensuing season, (commen-cing the 18th instant, and ending the 18th October.) at my stable in the town of Salisbury. JUNIUS SNEED. Salisbury, August 14, 1526.

Town Constable's Sale.

WILL be exposed to public sale, at the Court-House in Salisbury, on Wednesday the 6th day of September next, the house and lot, on Ennis street, in said town, now occupied

July 20, 1826,

"Potentin regia defloralt; Fama procetare vicet. His regal potency is gone; His fame augments with clearer tone." Fortune may smile on others now, As fondly as she nurtur'd him; Through life she had his ardent vow But fortune always had her whim.

Awhile she was a gracious dame, And strew'd with crowns his upward path; Urg'd to the heights of pow'r and fame, There left him with a frown of wrath,

Forthwith from her prolific womb, Disgrace and honour, splendour, gloom Defeat, despair, Hope, triumph, came To prop his pow'r or blast his name.

They who had Storm and Battle braved In agonizing throes expired: In frost and famine, phrenzy raved Of glory !- Man in death admired The author of their fate .- His mind

Mad not its lust of power resign'd! He knew his intellects had rul'd The storms enthusiasts had rais'd; And though her ardour had been cool'd Still Freedom on his Eagles gaz'd

With hope and partial love .- On high Again their fearful pinions spread "Napoleon" was the battle cry, And myriads found a gory bed.

Dame Fortune, now no longer true, But tantaliz'd at Waterloo: An instant his proud standards crown'd With vict'ry-then more darkly frown'd. O let the fickle jade be gone! Why be deluded day by day? Let reason hold his rightful throne, Stand at the helm,-direct the way T. realms where fortune cannot come To Temples, which she cannot build, Above the claricord of fame,

Terror, reverse, press on his rear ; For him there's no Asylum here. But if departed spirits can Be charm'd by eulogy from man, Or odium have any pow'r To wring, beyond the mortal hour, An age to come can hardly tell Whether he feel a Heav'n or Hell,

Or the red glories of the field.

The reverie is darkly deep,-Peace, peace be on thy final sleep ! No more by trembling Kings oppress'd; The Euphony of ocean's wave Compos'd thy mighty mind to rest, And Nature form'd thy Island grave.

When Monuments, rear'd to thy foe, Shall feel the crumbling touch of time, Thy undecaying tomb will show A grandeur similar to thine.

To the remotest date, thy name In living characters shall pass : In vain engrav'd is deedless fame On stone or perishable brass.

WOMAN.

To are stars of the night-ye are gens of the many, We are dew drops whose better illumines the thorn y And rayless that night is, their norming unbicest, When no beam from your eye Egits up years to the breast, When the charp thorns of sorrow sain steep in the beart, "The the sweet hy of woman assuages the samet; "I'm best o'er the church of misfortures to bead, res, a luver-in fir usess, a friend. As the rose of the valley when drapping with dew,
Is sweetest in obsers, and fairest in bue,
On the glance of dear woman the brighest appears,
When it beams from her eloquest eyes, through her sears

MISCELLANEOUS

Dr. FRANKLIN and THOMAS PAINE. When Paine was writing his infamous attacks on the Christian Religion, he submitted a part of his manuscript to Dr. Franklin for his inspection and opinion. The following is the answer of that great Philosopher and Patriot: Dear Sir: I have read your manuscript with some attention. By the argument it contains against a particular Providence, though you allow a general Providence, you strike at the foundation of all religion. For without the belief of a providence that takes cognisance of, guards and guides, and favours particular persons, there is no motive to worship a Deity, to fear its displeasure, or to pray its protection. I will not enter into any discussion of your principles, though you seem to desire it. At present I shall only give you my opinion, that though your reasonings are subtle, and may prevail with some readers, you will not succeed so as to change the general sentiments of mankind on that subject, and the consequence of printing this piece will be, a great deal of odium drawn upon yourself, mischief to you and no benefit to others. He that spits against the wind spits in his own face. But were you to succeed, do you imagine any good will be done by it? You yourself may find it easy to live a virtuous life without the assistance afforded by religion; you have a clear perception of the advantages of virtue, and the disadvantages of vice, and possess a strength of resolution sufficient to enable you to resist common temptations. But think how great a portion of mankind consists of weak and ignorant men and women, of inexperienced, inconsiderate youth, of both sexes, who have need of the motives of Religion to restrain them from vice, to support their virtue, and retain them in the practice of it till it becomes habitual, which is the great point for its security. And perhaps you are indebted to her originally, that is, to your religious education, for the habits of virtue upon which you now justly value yourself. You might easily display your excellent talents of reasoning upon a less hazardous subject, and thereby obtain a rank with our most distinguished authors. For among us it is not necessary, as among the Hottentots, that a youth to be raised into the company of men, should prove his manhood by beating his mother. I would advise you therefore, not to attempt unchaining the tiger, but to burn this piece before it is seen by any other person, whereby you will save yourself a great deal of mortification from the enemies it may raise against you, and perhaps a good deal of regret and repentance. If men are so wicked with religion, what would they be if without it? intended this letter itself as a proof of my friendship, and therefore add my profession to it; but simply subscribe, B. FRANKLIN.

> MOM THE SATURDAY EVENING POST. TRUE RELIGION.

Religion is amiable and lovely when represented in a true light-it is the highest happiness of a rational beingit exalts the mind above the captivating and alluring vanities of this world, and prepares man to meet with true fortitude and calm resignation, the unavoidable calamities which beset human life. The felicities attending conscious innocence are permanent and substantial-The happiness of a mind that can survey itself with tranquility and Was settled down to preach the word of God self approbation, is of all others the most desirable. True religion renders He for augmentation would not call. a man but little inferior to the angels, but without it he is beneath the beasts that perish.

Religion is represented by some as an abridgement to the pleasures of life, and is often set forth in the most gloomy and foreboding language! But mistaken is the idea-it refines the propensities of the heart-it unmasks the evils attendant on human life, and enables us to relish them as blessings in disguise! Thus a fountain of happiness is opened to the pious man which the licentious can never approach! Oh religion! how the multitude disregard and debase thy native amiableness! How long, oh man! wilt thou delay, before thou dost embrace the glorious privilege of being rational and immortal. Reader! oh reader, adhere to the practice of virtue-oppose the licentious practice of a degenerate age as an heir and expectant of a glorious immortality. Follow the bright example which the blessed author of our religion has set before us, and thou shalt find comfort and consolation while here, and everlasting peace beyond the grave. AUGUSTINE.

FROM THE LONDON COURIER. THE DEATH OF THE RIGHTEOUS. Sweet is the scene when virtue dies. When sinks a righteous soul to rest: How mildly beam the closing eyes; How gently heaves th' expiring breast !

So fades a summer cloud away ; So sinks the gale, when storms are o'er; So gently shuts the eye of day: So dies the wave along the shore.

Triumphant, smiles the victor-brow. Fann'd by some angel's purple wing; O Grave! where is thy vict'ry now? Invidious Death! where is thy sting!

A holy quiet reigns around : A calm which nothing can destroy; Nought can disturb that peace profound, Which their unfetter'd souls enjoy.

Farewell conflicting hopes and tears, Where lights and shades alternate dwell How bright th' unchanging morn appears! Parewell, inconstant world! Farewell!

Its duty done, as sinks the clay, Light, from its load the spirit flies; While heaven and earth, combine to say, "Sweet is the scene when Virtue dies."

A young man of respectable standing in this city, on Saturday morning, was found suspended by his neck-when discovered by his friends, life was entirely extinct. His prospects in life were very fair, and his character unimpeachable. Philadelphia paper.

DRESS THE MIND.

On the Sunday morning before gos existence, to wash the outside of the platter! Curls may be arranged, fine tortoise shell combs fixed, sparkling ear-rings hung, splendid garments displayed, and yet perhaps the gay fair one's mind may be poisoned with conceit, troubled with rivalry, and kept on the torture by ignorance and vanity. Windsor soap does not wash out the stains of the heart; Cologne water cannot throw a fragrance over an impure mind; nor will all the rubies of Golconda dizzle the recording angel into a forgetfulness of filling up the leaves of the book of retribution.

SLANDER. Slader is a sad employment, to say the best of it. Of all the species of slander, that is the most harmless which females direct against each other's bonnets, shawls, and shoulder knots Miss Biddy Bluecheeks went a shipping the other day in Broadway, and so much employment did she find for critical remarks upon the dresses of her friends, that she actually riturned to dinner and a glass of lemorade, without buying a single article the had gone out in search of. That lady's bonnet displeased her; this one's blue gauze dress over a white gown; the other one's waist was too long, too short, too bulky, too round, too slender, or any thing you please. The cut of a dandy's coat displeased her, and the tie of his cravat almos put her into hysterics. Oh! said she, what abominable fashions there are now-a-days, while she swallowed down a whole glass of lemonade, just coloured for constitution's sake, with ten imperceptible drops of > DROW THE WEW-PROLAND GALAST. RAISING A SALARY.

French Brandy. Snowden's Adv.

Some years ago, a man, though somewhat odd Although his slow-paid salary was but small, At parish meeting, a well meaning friend Ventur'd, unask'd, to humbly recon That Mr. Bunyan'a salary should be rais'd; Declaring he, for one, was much amaz'd, That any could propose such small reward For one who labor'd faithful in the Lord:---Declaring souls so narrow, stingy, craving, Must be cast off, as useless -- not worth saving As some were found to second, some to oppose Of course it follow'd, a debate arose. As this went on, one, stepping o'er the way, To Bunyan told the order of the day; Who hasty rose, and puffing ran, and sweating, And thus with eagerness addressed the meeting : "For Heaven's sake, friends, no higher pay allow; I'm plagued to death to get what's granted now.

the 30th June, contrived to avoid the natural effects of the rope by means of an apparatus about his body and neck, and that he is still alive and at large. Moreover his grave is said to have been open ed, and no corpse there. The story further says, that he has since been seen,

> "Just like a hen without a roost, Or whe lost gander; Or like a discontented ghost, That's prone to wander."

As we gave currency to a report, bere his execution, that he had starved cording to law. himself to death, so we give this counterpart, which robs the gallows of its due, and destines him to live forever. Winchester Ren.

Fron the Knowville (Ten.) Enquirer, Ang. 2. A most unexpected disaster has befallen us. The corn crop, our only hope of a supply for sustenance, is now greatly injured by the worm; and they are daily extending their ravages. Many fields are already nearly destroyed. We have been informed of one field of twenty acres, in informed of one field of twenty acres, in this neighborhood, that will not, it is believed, yield more than ten bushels.

Effects of Gambling .- Wm. F. Hooe, who was lately executed in Virginia for the crime of murder, in his dying hour confessed that he came to his untimely end by his passion for gambling. He said he began his career by merely playing for nuts and cakes, and soon for money, and thus continued by degrees. money, and thus continued by degrees till he got into a regular practice, which had led him to his present situation.

Dr. Brown courted a lady unsuccessfully for many years, during which elbow. time he every day drank her health; It is thought that Bob and sam are incompanbut being observed at last to omit the lars will be given to any man who will lodge custom, a gentleman said, 'Come either of them in any jail in the Union, and send doctor, your old toast; Excuse me, said he, I cannot make her Brown, l'I cannot make her Brown, Lencarer C. House, S. C. July, 1826. I'll toget her ne longer.'

New Store and Tavern.

On the Sunday morning before gosing to church, what a dressing there is among all classes, and what a stir to appear gay and pleasing! Is it quite an county, N. C. in the house formerly occupied by A. R. Jones, Esq. He pledges himself that he well as well as sufficient for the great purposes of our his Talles, his Bar and Stables, shall be as well well as well as the sum of the sum furnished with every thing necessary, as the locality of his situation will admit of. His personal attention will always be cordially at the service of his customers.

He has also on hand, an excellent assortment of which he intends selling at Persons wishing to purchase Persons wishing to purchase, will ple examine quality, ask prices, and judge for JOHN A. CHAFFIN. July 28, 1826.

DRY GOODS, HARD-WARE, and GROCERIES:

Notice.

THE copartnership in the Mercantile business at Concord, Cabarrus county, under the firm of Murphy & Brown, will be dissolved about the 20th day of October next, by mutual consent. All persons indebted to said firm, are requested to settle and close their accounts as soon as pessible, with William Brown, at Concord, by note or otherwise; and those having claims, are requested to present them.

12t32

WILLIAM BROWN.

Concord, Cabarrus county, July 24, 1826.

NOTICE.

A BSCONDED from my service, an indented apprentice, named Levis Roach, about fifteen years of age. He had a shirt, overalls, and straw-hat when he went away. All persons are cautioned against harbouring said apprentice. Ten cents reward will be given to any person who will return said Lewis to me.

BENJAMIN HENLINE.

Jredell, July 31st, 1826. 3t25

For Sale.

THAT large and convenient Dwelling-House, with three lots adjoining, at present occupied by Capt. John Fulton, situated in a pleasant part of the town of Salisbury. This property will be disposed of very low, and the payments made accommoda-

For terms, apply, in my absence, to Junius Sneed, or Charles Fisher.

Salisbury, 10th June, 1826. JAMES HUIE.

Valuable Tavern Stand. NOT having disposed of his extensive and valuable Tavern Stand in the town of Salisbury, the subscriber again offers it for sale. Sansoury, the susserine again.
This is one among the most eligible stands for a Public House in the place; it is central in the town, and the buildings are extensive and the town, and the buildings are extensive and well adapted to the purpose; it now enjoys an extensive custom, which might be greatly extended. The subscriber's desire to enter into another line of business, induces him to sell; otherwise he would by no means part with the property. A great bargain can be had in the purchase of these premises. As the stand is well known, it is not necessary to give a minute description of it; persons wishing to purchase, will doubtless view the property before closing a bargain. Apply to the subscriber in Salibury.

THOMAS HOLMES. THOMAS HOLMES. August 7, 1826.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in AN away from the subscriber, hving in Mecklenburg county, N. C. on the 14th inst. a Negro Man by the name of PETER, aged 28 years, of a yellowish complexion, about six feet high, tolerably stout built: his right arm is crooked, which may be perceived by his not being able to straighten it entirely. He was bought of Alexander Hogan, of Randolph coun-ty, in April last, and had been owned by Mr. A marvellous story is in circulation that Hogan, also of Rambion, who person who will apprehend said Negro, and sewas hung at Fairfax C. H., Virginia, on information, at Alexandriana post-office, Meck-lenburg county, N. C. shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.

JAMES LATTA.

Estate of Col. J. A. Means. A. Means, deceased, either by note or book account, are requested to come forward and make payment; and all those who have claims on the estate, are hereby notifed to come forward and present them, otherwise this notice will be pled in bar of their claims, account to the Clerk and Master.

WILLIAM C. MEANS, August 10, 1826 3126.

To the Jail of Rowan county, N. C. on the 16th of August, 1826, a negro man, who says his name is J.3CK, 22 years old, 5 feet 1 inch high; says he left his master about 6 weeks care in the Mestern country in the same is J.3CK, 22 years old, 5 feet 1 inch high; says he left his master about 6 weeks Carolinian, notifying said defendant that unless that the same care in the same c

Salisbury, N. C. Aug. 17, 1826.

Ran Away

ROM the subscribers, in Lancasterville, S. C. two Negro men, BOB and S.A.M. Bob is about 22 or 23 years of age; low and well made, pleasant when spoken to, and converses smartly. His hands and feet are small: he both reads and a sailor's walk : he is likely to deny his owner's name, and even his own, and pass by that of

Sam is about 26 years of age, of common size, speaks broken, and as he is an African by birth, has his country's mark on his left arm above his

Notice.

October next. The terms will be made nown on that day.

WESLEY REYNOLDS,

MICHAEL RICKART,

ABSALOM K. SIMONTON,

JOHN H. M'LAUGHLIN, SQUIER LOWRY,

Statesville, July 1st, 1826.

To Builders.

To buttlets.

To be let to the lowest bidder, at the Town of Wilkesborough, on Saturday the sixteenth day of September next, it being Superior Court week, the building of a Court-House for the county of Wilkes: To be forty feet square, or forty-five by thirty-five feet; two stories high; the foundation to be of stone, and the walls of brick. The particular description of the building, with a plan of the same, will be exhibited at the time of letting out. Donad and security will be required of the contractors.

M. STOKES, M. STOKES.

JOHN FINLEY, WALTER R. LENOIR, JOHN BRYAN JOHN MARTIN,

August 3rd, 1826.

Commissioners.

House of Entertainment.

House of Entertainment.

The subscriber informs the public, that he has opened a House of Entertainment in the town of Jefferson, and county of Ashe, on the west side of the blue ridge, at the stand formerly occupied by Anbrose Parkes, on the south-east corner of the court-house. He pledges himself that his customers shall be as well supplied, in every article of convenience, as the locality of his situation will admit; and that every attention requisite to his undertaking, shall be paid to his customers.

All persons desirous to visit a high and healthy part of the country, are requested to visit this place. As a pleasant retreat, it stands as highly recommended as any other part of the world; and they will meet with a welcome reception, and the best kind of accommodation.

VINCENT REID.

VINCENT REID.

June, 1826. N. B. The newly established line of Stages running from Cheraw to Knoxville, in Tenessee, passes through this place twice a week, by the way of Charlotte, Statesville, and Wilkesboro.

Sale of Lands for Taxes.

WILL be sold at the Court-House of Gurke county, on the fourth Monday of Sentember next, the following tracts of land, or so much thereof as will pay the taxes and charges due for the year 1824, to wit: 1400 acres, listed by John Phagan, and adjoining Thomas Young.

150 acres, listed by Thomas Collins, in the Walnut Cove. SAM'L. M'D. TAFE, 85'f.

By B. H. Buners, Inp. 85'f.

Angust 4th, 1816. 3123.

Lands for Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale the Plantation whereon he now lives, situated in the Jersey Settlement, Davidson county, N. C. on both sides of Swearing Creek and Muddy Run, adjoining the lands of Anderson Ellis, Mathias Long, Alfred Smith, and others: the plantation contains 360 acres, a large portion of which is under cultivation; 20 acres of good meadow, and 50 acres more can be made so with a little trouble; a great number of bearing apple and peach trees; it has on it a good dwelling-house, trouble; a great number of bearing appreauch peach trees; it has on it a good dwelling-house, and all other necessary buildings, with excellent water convenient thereto; and is allowed by all who have seen it, to be the most delighful country seat in that part of the country. For further particulars, apply to the subscriber on the premises.

MAURICE DAVIS. the premises.
August 17, 1826.

Sale of Lands.

State of North Carolina, Cabarrus counts:

IN Equity, spring term, 1826. Caleb P. Alexander, and others, petition for sale of land, in pursuance of a accree of the Court of Equity, I will sell at the court-house in Concord, on the third Monday of October next, that valuable Plantation, lying on Rocky River, belonging to the heirs of Nathaniel Alexander, dec'd. ad-

Admr's. | State of North Carolina, Cabarrus county : COURT of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, July term, 1826. Paul Barringer vs. Asa Thompson: Original attachment, levied on Tan

Taken up and Committed To the Jail of Rowan county, N. C. on the 16th of August, 1826, a negro man, who next, then and there replevy, plead or demur, otherwise judgment will be taken by default, and execution awarded accordingly.

DAN'L. COLEMAN, Cl'k.

Price adv. S2. 628

COURT of pleas and quarter sessions, July session, 1826. Thomas Pemberton to Daniel McGill: attachment levied on lande in the Western Carolinian for four weeks, that unless the defendant appear at the next county of the property of the property of Montgomet's county count court, to be held for the county of Montgomery at the court-house in Lawrenceville, on the first Monday in October next, repley or plend, judgment will be entered for the amount of the plaintiff's demand.

J. B. MARTIN, Colo. Price adv. S1 50.

Estate of John P. Hodgens. THE subscriber having qualified as administrator on the estate of the late John P Hodgens, dec. desires all persons indebted to said estate, to come forward and make settle-ment; and all those having claims against said estate, will present them for settlement, proper-ly authenticated, otherwise this notice will be plead in har of their recovery.

plead in bar of their recovery.

MESHACK PINKSTON, admir. Nov. 24, 1825.